

Please do not allow these banks to call me. I feel protected by Indiana's telephone privacy act. If my bank wants to contact me, they have my email. Otherwise, why do they ask for the email address? If someone didn't have email, use the good old snail mail. That's what the bank does when the customer is waiting on something important!!!